

TRUSTEES' MEETING

The Board of Trustees met in regular session at the City Hall at 8:30 p. m. July 19, 1917. All members present at roll call.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

A communication was read from John H. Foley, Attorney for Elizabeth Kenyon, accompanied by a copy of the judgment given against the City of Glendale in favor of his client, dated March 3, 1917, and making demand for the payment of the sum of $250.00 awarded in the case. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the communication was referred to the City Attorney.

The City Manager called the attention of the Board to the fact that the ordinance in regard to the assessment of property and the collection of taxes fixes the last Monday in the month of July as the time for the meeting of the Board of Trustees acting as a Board of Equalization, stating that on account of the fact that there are five Mondays in the present month, that this meeting will occur on July 30th next, and that advertisement should be made accordingly.

He submitted a communication in regard to the budget for the forthcoming year, accompanied by a resolution, which was, on motion, ordered to be read, and upon being read, was upon motion of Trustee Grist, adopted as Resolution Number 958, "A Resolution of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, adopting annual budget," by the following vote: Ayes: Grist, Jackson, Muhleman, Thompson, Woodberry.

WHO IS GUILTY?

MRS. NEINO ABLE TO TALK—DESCRIBES MAN WHO ASSAULTED HER JUNE 7

One of the most terrible crimes that ever happened in Glendale is recalled to the minds of our citizens when the announcement is made that Mrs. S. M. Neino, who was assaulted at her home, 756 South Pacific avenue, Glendale, on the forenoon of June 7 last, is able to talk. Upon that date an unknown man entered the Neino home, and now the lady, who has regained consciousness and the power of speech after being confined in the Glendale Sanitarium for six weeks, communicates with Chief Herald of Glendale as follows:

Strange man, American or Austrian, 6 feet or 6 feet 1 inch tall; weight 220 to 240 pounds; age 40 or 45, smooth shaven, prominent nose, light eyes, either blue or gray, face heavily tanned, full round face, wore black suit with almost invisible gray check 1/4 inch square; small hands, dark brown hair; entered house by front door, where I was in front room holding my 3 year old boy in arms. Man said something to me which I could not understand; repeated words three or four times, then pulled bottle out of pocket and struck me on head three or four times. He then took boy from my arms and carried him into bedroom. He returned to front room, where I was, but I became unconscious and do not know what happened after that. Man left by way of back door and then I locked both back and front doors. Did not open doors until teachers came from Pacific avenue school and gave notice of the assault.

The story that follows the rescue of this lady is a very pathetic one. Dr. Chase was called. She was removed with the little boy to Glendale Sanitarium, where the boy died two days following, from the effects of wound on his forehead, and a few days later the mother gave premature birth to a child which died a few hours after birth.

For weeks Mrs. Neino lay at the point of death, unable to communicate with any one as to the particulars connected with the crime. Although she has no remembrance of it, she was struck several times on her head by a hammer which was found on the floor of the house where the assault was committed. Marks of the hammer were very plainly noticed on her head. Two finger rings were missed from the Neino home at that time, one being a small diamond ring and the other being a soft gold Japanese hinged ring.

The crime committed was one that Glendale citizens should not forget and every possible means should be used to find the guilty man. The description given by Mrs. Neino is very complete, and this may be the clue of locating the man who is not a man but a brute. Any person having seen a man of the description given above should notify G. H. Herald, City Marshal of Glendale.

MUSIC SECTION

Thursday afternoon a number of ladies met with Mrs. Frank N. Arnold, curator of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, to map out the work of the coming year. It was decided to have no section membership dues next year on account of the many other demands on our pocketbooks, including Red Cross and other charities. It was decided that next year's program will be given by the members of the section. The outline of the program for each of the eighteen meetings will be made out beforehand and printed in the year book.

A great deal of enthusiasm was shown at the meeting and we are looking forward to a very enjoyable year. Any member of the Tuesday Afternoon club is welcome to join the section, whether musically inclined or not. For information call Mrs. Frank N. Arnold, curator, Glen. 177-J, or Mrs. L. N. Hagood, secretary, Glen. 1332-J.

A PINK LUNCHEON

Miss Leota Snyder of 821 Cameron place was the hostess at a most charming pink luncheon given at La Ramada on Thursday. The hours following the luncheon were spent in doing fancy work and listening to music of the Victrola. The guests and hostess were classmates at the Normal and these little reunions only serve to cement the bonds of friendship established during those days. Those enjoying this delightful afternoon together were Miss Elsie Church, Miss Alice McCoy, Miss Eunice Jones, Miss Jane Snyder and the hostess, Miss Leota Snyder.

FIRST DRAFT CHOSEN

THREE THOUSAND NUMBERS HAD BEEN DRAWN UP TO 2:33 THIS AFTERNOON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Room 226, Senate Office Bldg., WASHINGTON, July 20.—The bulk of America's first draft army had been chosen by lot at 2:33 p. m. to-day. Hoarse announcers had clicked off 3000 fated pellet numbers at that time. The third thousand was passed at 2:33 p. m. At this rate the draft will not be finished until from 3 to 5 a. m. tomorrow morning.

These 3000 numbers should inform practically every man subject to call among the first 687,000 men. However, from 5000 upwards will be necessary to cover scattered districts. Numbers ran so high that officials were not certain that so few as 2000 would be enough to cover the first call.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, July 20.—Accompanied by two of his staff officers Major General Pershing left Paris today for a two day's visit at the British front as the guest of Field Marshal Haig. He will study the British army and its working organization and incidentally get in touch with real fighting.

TRIES TO BREAK FRANCE'S STRENGTH

GERMANY ATTEMPTING TO WEAR OUT ENEMY BEFORE AMERICAN TROOPS COME ON BATTLE LINE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, July 20.—Germany is desperately trying to wear out France's military strength before the American troops get on the battle line. After belittling all possible American aid Germany is now beginning to realize that entirely fresh armies from the United States may later stem the tide against them.

PEACE RESOLUTION PASSED

REICHSTAG PASSES MEASURE FOSTERED BY COALITION DEMANDING PEACE WITHOUT ANNEXATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
COPENHAGEN, July 20.—The German Reichstag yesterday evening passed the peace resolution fostered by the coalition of Centrist, Liberalist and Socialist party members according to dispatches received here to-day. The vote was 124 to 116, it was announced with great applause from the left and the center.

The coalition peace resolution declared that Germany did not desire peace with annexation.

NEW CHANCELLOR A MILITARIST

GERMANY WILL NOT MAKE ANOTHER PEACE OFFER SAYS MICHAELIS IN MAIDEN SPEECH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
AMSTERDAM, July 20.—Germany will not make another peace offer; the peace she desires to conclude is that of a victor and it is the Allies who must hereafter make overtures to end the war. This was the challenge flung to the world by Chancellor George Michaelis, new premier of Germany, in his maiden speech of that office delivered in the Reichstag.

DRAFT NUMBERS

NAMES THOUGHT NECESSARY FOR FIRST DRAFT HAVE BEEN DRAWN

Up to 2:33 p. m. to-day 3000 numbers had been drawn in the draft lottery. The Glendale Evening News received the numbers as they were drawn, from the United Press. Only those numbers drawn that are below 1930 are published in the News, as the registration in the seventh district does not go higher than that number.

Officials expect that the first fifteen hundred numbers drawn will be enough to cover the first draft. At the rate of drawing, the lottery will not be complete until some time tomorrow morning.

SWIFT ACTION

Yesterday about 2 p. m. in the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Bright decided, after consultation with Mr. W. D. Ogg and the secretary of the G. C. C., that Glendale should be circularized, inviting the people to visit the Allies' Fiesta at La Ramada Park to-morrow, to witness demonstration of a simple method of drying and preserving fruits and vegetables. Mr. Ogg undertook it. He delivered copy for circular to the News. By 3 o'clock the circulars were ready. Mr. Ogg in his auto went to the Intermediate school, persuaded Miss Douglas of the Red Cross Ambulance Pillow Brigade to lend him four of her boy workers. They were Masters E. Van Dyke, J. Alvord, W. Yariek and W. Reed. Before "quitting time" they had made a house to house delivery of those circulars over large territory, north of Broadway, east of Brand and Glendale avenue. To-day Mrs. A. M. Beamon has part of the same boys and others completing the good work.

BACK FROM YOSEMITE

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Weaver, 301 South Kenwood street, have returned from a fine trip to Yosemite Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith of Orange, left Glendale early on the morning of July 4th in Mr. Smith's fine new Hudson super-six. They drove via Saugus and the ridge route to Delano, where they left the state highway to visit Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Blodgett, formerly of Glendale, now living at Ducor. The next day they drove to Fresno via Porterville, where they left the good roads for the mountains on the Wawona route, driving to the Mariposa grove of big trees and also to Glacier Point, where they had their first grand view of the beautiful Valley 4000 feet below. After spending five nights in the Valley, the party left via Big Oak flat road for Modesta, where they visited friends and then went on to San Jose, Santa Cruz, Monterey, Del Monte and home on the coast route, which they found rather had, with many detours on account of road work. Although they had a delightful trip in every way, "Camp Weaver" looked awfully good to them. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on Monday for their home at Orange.

IN SCOTTISH FLOWERS

By Secy G. C. C.
Glendale has a great many Scottish-American residents. They and their friends are invited to the Chamber of Commerce to see a rare specimen of the beautiful old cross-stitch work, a large bouquet of flowers—lilies, roses, bluebells, and a few not known to the writer, worked on a play-box cover top. It was made at Broughty Ferry, Scotland, about 1850, by Mrs. George K. Harrower, the grandmother of Dr. Henry R. Harrower of Glendale. The colors are wonderfully fresh and bright.

Note: Find the heather blossom! P. S. It was donated by Dr. and Mrs. Henry R. Harrower.

NOTES ON THE ALLIES' FIESTA JASON KILGORE CALLED REBEKAH INSTALLATION

It would surprise some of the uninitiated to know how much work is being done by those responsible for the great Allies' Fiesta for next Saturday afternoon and evening. La Ramada Park is a hive of industry and committees galore. Each is industriously at work accomplishing its "bit." When these bits are pieced together those fortunate enough to be present will be delighted, for Glendale is to have a big "do-in's" to-morrow.

More than twenty booths are under construction and literally hundreds of salables, eatables and otherables are being sent in for use in the big benefit.

Quite the most interesting thing that we can announce in advance is the news from Mrs. Harry Duffield, Chairman of Program. She has secured an unusually brilliant array of talent. All cannot be announced here, but the following is a hint of what may be expected. There will be a rare program afternoon and evening.

General Program

Allies' Review
Tedora Wisniewska, Polish singer, in costume
Francis J. W. Henry, Harry Lauder impersonator
Madame Laura de Turczynowicz, Battlefield Experiences
A famous Major of Princess Pat Regiment tells a strange story of the Trenches
Mr. Poulin, of Ellis Club, will sing "The Marsellaise"
Mrs. Geo. Melford of Hollywood, solo
Mrs. Charles McKay, N. Y., solo
Mr. J. H. Mellish and Minstrel Chorus, Southern Melodies
Famous Kilties Band
And many other most interesting numbers. Then there will be a great confetti battle and dancing.

JASON KILGORE CALLED

Jason, Kilgore, a graduate of the class of '17, Glendale Union High School, has just received a rush call to go to San Francisco to take a position on a passenger boat to go, as he chooses, either to the Orient or to Panama, as wireless operator. Mr. Kilgore left Friday on the Harvard. This news is very gratifying to the relatives and many friends of Mr. Kilgore.

Mr. Kilgore is the son of J. A. Kilgore, 1607 Vine street, and brother of Chester and Russell Kilgore, and has been an untiring student of wireless telegraphy. After attending the Y. M. C. A. Radio School only a week and a half, Mr. Kilgore took the government examination and passed the highest examination of any. Mr. Kilgore expects to return to Throop University to complete his course in electrical engineering. However, he expects to visit Peru, Australia and the Orient before resuming his studies.

REBEKAH INSTALLATION

Carnation Rebekah Lodge, No. 257, will hold a special meeting, Tuesday evening, July 24, to install the officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. Lizzie Sutliff of Los Angeles will be the installing officer. All members of Carnation Lodge are requested to be present and all visiting Rebekahs are welcome.

NATURE STUDY

Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the Pacific avenue school there will be a special treat for the children's Nature club. Harold Ducey, one of our high school boys, who bids fair to become a natural scientist, will be present with his collection of beautiful butterflies. He will also have with him the caterpillars and cocoons of one species. Harold Ducey has been fortunate in being selected as a companion by a young English scientist who is in California recuperating from the effects of poisonous war gases inhaled while in action. The last trip for butterflies which these two took was taken up Mt. Lowe, where several varieties unknown to this locality were found.

Norman Begg will also bring with him two cunning little Japanese turtles, some toads, frogs, and tadpoles. Any child is welcome to this class. There are no dues, just an interest in these things required. Don't miss seeing these exhibits, boys especially, and hearing what Harold Ducey is doing.

Will those who planned to bring specimens of sea-life with them not fail to do so.

BOULEVARDS NEGLECTED

The county of Los Angeles is allowing over five million dollars worth of macadam roads to go to ruin, because of a squabble about bookkeeping that has been going on in the board of supervisors for over a year, says J. L. Matthews in the Covina Argus.

This is a very serious situation, and one which the taxpayers will look back upon with regret, if something is not done to break the deadlock that now exists.

Macadam roads are not built and then let alone for all time—they must be constantly maintained, as any sensible citizen knows. One year of complete neglect will bring about a condition in macadam roadway that cannot be repaired in many years. And, not only do we lose the efficiency of the roads in the meantime, but we must spend far more upon them when we get at it finally than would be the case if they are maintained constantly. The whole situation is revealed in that one word "maintenance." The roads must be kept in condition or they will go to complete ruin.

The sudden stoppage of all work on roads has come because of a large deficit in county funds, stated by some to be over a million, by others more than this amount. There is no evidence that this money has been stolen. It has been taken out of one fund and put into another. It can all be accounted for, according to the experts that have been working on the books, but it has been misappropriated—juggled around from one fund to another in a most unbusinesslike juggling.

But this has nothing whatever to do with the question of the saving of the roads. It is the height of idiocy to let our property go to ruin because someone has made a mistake in administration. No citizen who pays taxes wants to see the magnificent boulevard system of Los Angeles county ruined simply because the board of supervisors cannot agree to a system of proper accounting.

We voted $3,250,000 in the first "good roads" bond issue. We have since doubled that amount in work that has been put in on the fifty-fifty basis of the property-owners and the county. We must conserve this investment and continue to make it efficient. Macadam roads last indefinitely if properly maintained—they go to pieces in a year if all work is discontinued. Many boulevards leading into the city of Los Angeles are already showing the decided lack of upkeep.

Did you know that these conditions exist? Don't you, as an owner of these roads, want this investment safeguarded? While the board of supervisors is wrangling helplessly over something that certainly is in the category of spilt milk, we are losing our roads, our greatest asset. Let's get busy and bring pressure that will correct this idiocy. It is up to the citizens and taxpayers.

HURRYING RECRUITING

"The main reason why we are hurrying recruiting in the new Field Artillery Regiment just authorized for California," said Stewart Edward White, the author, who is serving as recruiting officer for south of the Tehachapi, "is to give the man subject to draft a chance to choose his service. If he enrolls, passes his physical examination and is mustered in before he receives his draft card from Washington, he thereby escapes his draft obligations and can serve with this unit of his choice. If, on the other hand, he is drafted, he goes where he is sent—perhaps to the Philippines or the Mexican Border to relieve trained men.

"Field Artillery is a crack service. Every enlisted man has his own job to perform; he is not used as the Infantryman; he is in all the fighting, follows closely to consolidate every advance, and yet he is just far enough back of the first line to avoid bombs, liquid fire, machine guns and all the rest of trench pleasantries, including living in the trenches themselves. He has no endless foot slogging; there are over five hundred horses in a full regiment and if he does not ride one of them, he gets a seat on a gun or a caisson. And he has a good chance for promotion.

"There are about one hundred and fifty Non-commissioned Officers. These men have responsibility far in advance of an Infantry Non-commissioned. They work the guns, the sights, the firing, micrometers, fuse setters, etc., as well as taking charge of the men.

"This regiment is composed of handpicked men from a handpicked state," said Mr. White earnestly. "It is commanded by a Colonel of the Regular Army. Did you know that usually the Department's policy is to assign such an Officer to no unit under a Brigade? It is going to get intensive training. It is going to get action and get it quick. It is an honor that California has been selected, and it's going to do honor to California in its performance. It will stick together for the war.

"And for the man from 30 to 45 years of age," Mr. White pointed out in conclusion, "this is positively the last call; heretofore he has been able to list in the Regular Army or the National Guard. After the draft is made, all incomplete units will be filled up by drafted men; the other man will then be out of it for good.

"Southern California has been tentatively assigned two Batteries; when they are filled the opportunity has passed. If they are not promptly filled, that chance will be given to the North."

Mr. White is in charge of recruiting in Southern California. Headquarters have been established at No. 749 South Spring street, Los Angeles, where enlistments may be signed, blanks for physical examination be obtained and further information required.

OURS THE OLDEST FLAG

The Stars and Stripes is the oldest of all the banners which men are following into battle. The American ensign dates from an act of the Continental Congress of June 14, 1777. By the treaty of Paris in 1783 Great Britain implied recognition of the Stars and Stripes as and when authorized by the Continental Congress.

The Union Jack of the British Empire did not exist in its present form until 1801. The tri-color of France is second in seniority to the Stars and Stripes. It was first adopted as the national emblem by act of February 17, 1791.

The red, white and black of the German Empire was not adopted until November, 1867. When the dual monarchy of Austria-Hungary was formed in 1867 the flag with its green half stripe was adopted. The Italian flag traces back to 1805 and the Russian flag is a recent development.

TO PROMOTE AMERICAN MUSIC

The formation of a national organization by leading American composers and dramatists, to promote American opera and American music in general, is a timely movement. Music is the supreme expression of a people's soul. The time when America is engaged in a supreme task of world-wide import has been fittingly chosen for the beginning of a national movement to create a national music.

There is inspiration in America for the greatest opera that ever was written. The heroic period of American history teems with examples of the highest devotion to ideals, the greatest courage in grappling with the forces of nature, with splendid visions worked out to glorious achievement. That heroic period is now reaching its golden climax—the period of fruition of the highest ideals that the world has ever known.

The new organization intends to put the struggle of America into music and words, and to tell the story of America in that universal language.—Omaha Excelsior.

FOUR HUNDRETH ANNIVERSARY

On October 31, 1917, it will be four hundred years since Martin Luther nailed the Ninety-five Theses upon the door of the castle church at Wittenberg, which began the Reformation. The world will celebrate that event next year.

Several of the national bodies of the Lutheran Church have joined forces and opened headquarters in the Hornor Building, Philadelphia, and preliminary preparations for an impressive and constructive celebration are well under way. For more than a year the Joint Committee has had meetings, and sub-committees are now arranging the details and giving form to the leading features. —The Christian Herald.

The return trip was made by way of San Francisco, Berkeley, with stops at Palo Alto, Santa Cruz, San Luis Obispo. A very enjoyable five days was spent at Pacific Grove. They report nothing to mar the trip except the detours which they were obliged to make around the places where work was being done on the new highways.

KENTUCKY DRIED BEANS

Take fresh string beans (preferably Kentucky Wonders), string them and break into one or two inch pieces. Do not shell, but use any beans that may roll out of hulls in breaking. Lay them in a drying rack or, as they do in Kentucky, scatter over a clean sheet of muslin or cheesecloth, and place sheet flat on any roof or porch that gets the sun all day. Leave them to dry, and when they are well shriveled and will rattle like husks, they are ready to be put into dry flour sacks and tied to the rafters of the cellar or (in California) the garage. They keep all year.

Recipe for Cooking

Take out required quantity and place in a deep kettle. Cover with cold water and let stand 12 hours. Pour off cold water and plunge into boiling salted water. Put a piece of salt pork in with beans or season with one-half cup of bacon drippings to a large kettle of beans. Cook steadily for about 6 or 8 hours. Use fireless cooker if possible, reheating the stone once. A red pepper pod improves the flavor.

These beans are a meat substitute and should be accompanied by corn bread. Potatoes may be cooked on top of beans if added the last hour. MRS. W. E. EVANS.

BOY ORGANIST

A church in Centralia, Kan., has a prodigy in the person of Edward Everett, organist, who is only thirteen years of age. When he enters the choir gallery on Sunday mornings clad in his knee-pants suit, strangers might think he was going to pump the church organ or sing in a children's chorus. When he gets on the bench at the organ the top of his head cannot be seen, so the music gives the impression of coming from the organ without any human agency. He plays voluntaries, anthems, and solo selections as well as hymns, and handles difficult music with the skill of an expert.—Exchange.

TIN FOIL BALL GUESSING CONTEST

A great interest was manifested by Glendale boys about the guessing contest over the weight of the ball of tin foil in the Chamber of Commerce window. It was weighed this morning by "Better Coffee Booth" and the result was a surprise. Guesses, after "hefting" the big ball, ranged all the way from 57 pounds to 255 pounds. But Carl Garben, 884 Damasco court, guessed the exact weight, 65 pounds, won the prize and received the 2 tickets to the Allies' Fiesta at La Ramada Park to-morrow. The three other guesses nearest are: (1) Don Wells, 328 South Maryland, 68 pounds; (2) Forrest Jordan, 126 South Maryland, 62 pounds; (3) William Huesman, 410 West Ninth street, 70 pounds.

HOW DEAF MUTES FEEL MUSIC

Deaf mutes love music. It thrills them. They feel it, says the Popular Science Monthly, by placing their hands and elbows on a piano while the teacher plays it. The vibrations not only give sensations which enliven the body, but they actually stimulate them. The parts most sensitive to vibrations are the chest, head, lungs and feet. "An exciting feeling comes up through the floor," is the way one deaf boy describes it. "Without music I would be lonesome," wrote a little Italian deaf mute. "It gives me a strong shock through the feet to the head," stated another. Others when asked to explain their sensations said, "I feel it in my temples and in my legs," "I feel it through my whole body," and "I feel it in my chest and lungs." According to teachers of deaf mutes, musical instruction is more important as an educational factor for the deaf child than it is for the hearing.
